In addition, Bilt reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to award Bilt points on any single transaction with a net purchases exceeding $2,500. You may not receive the Bilt points if we receive inaccurate information or are otherwise unable to identify your purchase as qualifying for the offer. It may take up to seven (7) days after qualifying purchases for your Bilt points to post to your account. Should you receive Bilt points on an ineligible or returned/canceled purchase, Bilt may revoke those Bilt points at any time at its discretion. Certain Bilt Neighborhood Dining restaurants are also part of Rewards Network, a dining aggregator that operates many different rewards programs, of which Bilt Neighborhood Dining is only one. Any one eligible credit and/or debit card may be linked with only one Rewards Network-powered program, so if a specific card linked to your Bilt account is earning points at another Rewards Network-powered program you will not earn Bilt Neighborhood Dining points at Reward Networks restaurants using that specific card. In order to earn Bilt Neighborhood Dining points at Rewards Network restaurants with a given card linked to your Bilt account that is also linked to another Rewards Network-powered program, you must toggle on “Enable Rewards” in the dining tab of the Bilt app or website, which will automatically enroll all cards linked to your Bilt account to the Bilt Neighborhood Dining Program and unenroll you from other Rewards Network-powered programs to which you are currently linked. If you subsequently link any card linked to your Bilt account to another Rewards Network-powered program, you will not earn Bilt Neighborhood Dining points at Rewards Network restaurants for purchases made using that specific card, and that specific card will earn rewards under the new program. You will be notified if any given card has been removed from one Rewards Network-powered program because it has been linked to another program.
